

Stalking the Plumed Serpent

And Other Adventures in Herpetology

by
D. Bruce Means

Table of Contents

Chapter	Title	Page
	Table of Contents	iii
	Foreword by Edward O. Wilson	v
	Preface	vii
	Acknowledgments	ix
1	The Eastern Diamondback: Gentle Ben of Rattlesnakes	1
2	River of May: New World's First Snake	6
3	Diamonds in the Rough: Afternoon Delight	13
4	Herpetophobia: Roundups or Festivals?	22
5	Herpetophilia: Apalachicola Kingsnake	30
6	Blue Indigo: Forest Ruler	38
7	Phaeognathus : Secrets in the Red Hills	52
8	The Feared Cottonmouth: Is It Aggressive?	61
9	Cotton Rat: Base of the Food Web	70
10	Alligator Snapping Turtle: Leviathan of Southern Rivers	75
11	Ouachita Earthworms: A Glowing Story	82
12	Bushmasters and the Volcano: Silent Death, Violent Death	93
13	Is Tzabcan Kukulcan? Stalking the Plumed Serpent	102
14	Island Treasures: Nosy Mangabe	118
15	Treefrog Dines on Bats: Prey turns Predator	131
16	Wonambi: Quest for the Rainbow Serpent	138
17	Black Tiger Snake: Glutton of Chappell	154
18	Hunt for the Roughie: Rare Kimberley Relict	162
19	The Fiercey: World's Deadliest	173
20	Coastal Taipans: A Dream Realized	183
21	Greenies and the Cape York Python Trove	194
22	Okefenokee Alligators: Congratulatory Bellows	212
	Epilogue	216
	Bibliography	223
	Index	227

16-pages of color photos inserted between pp. 148 & 149